Setting

Located in the heart of Córdoba, the H10 Palacio Colomera is exceptionally located in the emblematic Plaza de las Tendillas, known for its iconic clock that strikes on the hour and on the half hour with original flamenco guitar touches instead of chimes. Plaza de las Tendillas is also known for being one of Córdoba's most prominent commercial hubs, with a wide variety of restaurants and bars. The square is the starting point for most tours and routes visiting Córdoba's main sights and tourist attractions.

Description

(OPENING IN JUNE 2019)

The H10 Palacio Colomera is housed within the Casa Colomera, a palace built in 1928 to serve as the residence of the counts of Colomera. Located in the central Plaza de las Tendillas, the renovation project recovered a traditional Córdoba-style atrium, as well as some of the building's original architecture. It has cosy rooms, a typical Córdoba-style patio with swimming pool and garden area, a restaurant in the atrium and a restaurant in the atrium and a rooftop terrace with panoramic views over the ancient city.
